HOW TO BE A SPY

CHAPTER 1

By: Addison

My teacher's face turned as red as a tomato and his eyes turned into slits as he yelled "Hazel!" I look up from my spy project gone wrong panicking in front of the whole class.

"Everybody get out of the room!" I yell, already half way out the door. Everyone runs out of the classroom just before we hear a giant BOOM, I peak inside of the classroom where a giant purple glob sits on my desk. I had been making a spy gun. It was supposed to shoot that purple glob at criminals and stick them to the wall.

My teacher looks at me and grumbles "Hazel you are in so much tr-" the bell rings before he can finish and I'm half way out the door, not even bothering to wait for my brother Jake.

“Hey Hazel wait up!” my twin brother yells sprinting up to me in the parking lot.

“No I’m good,” I say not even trying to hide my irritation.

“Hey everybody messes up, stop being so grumpy!” he says making me look him in the eyes, and seeing how kind they are deflates all of my anger.

“That’s my third time this week messing up my spy gun,” I say tears springing to my eyes Jake pulls me in close to his chest telling me that I’ll be okay and that I’ll be able to make that spy gun in no time. I hop into my Camaro and drive home.

I get on my MiPad and start texting my best friend Venus, you would use a phone to do this, well I live on earth but where I live hasn’t really been discovered by normal people. I mean I’m not like an alien but I don’t use the tools that the normal human beings do.

I walk over to my mirror and wipe the tears that had fallen down my cheeks. I look up at my reflection I have dark brown eyes with straight chocolate brown hair and I have olive skin. I’m the prettiest girl in my class 😊. My brother Jake looks the similar to me because we're twins. I get back in my awesome car and head to Venus's house. "Hey girlfriend," greets Venus,

"Hey"

"Lets go up into my room I've got some gossip!" we stomp up to her room and sit on her bed.

"Okay so what's the gossip?" I ask glumly,

"Well Brat Queen a.k.a. Trinity was walking up to David, you know cause she likes him and she totally slipped and fell on her tush and started balling right in front of him. He helped her up but she ran crying to the bathroom it was amazing!" I look up at my friend and smile I've had a crush on David since the 1st grade.

"I know you have," says Venus reading my mind. Here on this place that you normal humans haven't discovered yet on earth, us humans have powers. Venus as you can see, can read minds. I have four powers. I can levitate, be invisible, can make up powers in my mind and then I can have them give them or take those powers. My last power is being able to take other people's powers and have them for myself.

“I gotta go” I say already shutting the front door behind me when I run right into David.

CHAPTER 2

“Hey,” greets David

“Hey,” I say not knowing what to do.

“What are you doing here?” I blurt before I can stop myself, “I mean uh um”

“I’m here to help Venus plan the prom,” answers David smiling.

“Oh nice,” I say trying to act cool.

“Yeah you wanna help?”

“I do but I’m um busy.”

“Okay see you at school,” replied David sounding disappointed.

“Yeah you too,” I drive home and go to bed boy I didn’t know that would be the last night I got to sleep for a while.

CHAPTER 3

BEEP, BEEP, BEEP, BEEP, I bolt up in my bed and see Jake running into my room he throws my spy suit at me and tells me to get it on.

“Wait what’s going on?” I ask already out of bed unzipping my spy suit.

“We’ll talk about it later.”

I get on my spy suit which is a tight black suit that has a belt that holds a freeze gun, a voice changer, and a chocolate bar with a backup. I run downstairs and ask my brother why he got me up in the middle of the night.

“I’m not the one who made the alarm go off.”

“Then who did?” I ask.

“It’s the chocolate princess calling for help. We need to hurry and get in our spymobill to save her,” exclaimed my brother.

“Who’s coming after her?” I question worriedly.

“Lets go already,” I say in a firm and determined voice.

“Okay but let me get the engine on the spymobill started because it hasn’t been used for 80 years,” my brother said in an annoyed voice.

“Okay hurry please!” I yell.

“I will! Calm down!” my brother yells back.

“NO!” I shout.

While my brother is getting the car’s engine started, I get out a chocolate pop-tart and a coke and start eating and drinking them. I’m so stressed I eat three more pop-tarts and drink three more cokes and when I think I’ve had enough my brother walks in and says “It’s time.”

CHAPTER 4

While we’re driving to ‘The Rainbow River Of Rainbowness' I chew on my nails while my brother sings his favorite song Thrift Shop. "I'm onna pop some tags only got 20 dollars in my pocket I I I'm huntin lookin for a come up this is soo awesome!"

I turn to my favorite song Thank You and start singing, "We are the ones the ones you left behind don't tell us how, tell us how to live our lives ten million strong were breaking all the rules thank you for nothin cause there's nothin left to lose na na." My brother looks at me, then turns down the music.

"You know that's not good for your nails right?" my brother looks at me curiously.

"Yeah I know," I reply in a daze

"You know if we save the chocolate princess we'll be known as heroes?" my brother asked with excitement rising in his voice.

"Yeah um what is the chocolate princess's name? Cause she's not made out of chocolate right?" I asked.

"No she's not made out of chocolate and her name is pronounced Sochee, except it's spelled X-o-i-t-c-h-e-l."

“That’s cool,” I said.

“Yeah.”

I look out the window excited and terrified. I have so many thoughts that I get lost in them. Pretty soon I think myself to sleep.

CHAPTER 5

“Wake up we’re here!” my brother yelled.

My brother is inches from my face.

“Wha- wait where are we?” I groaned.

My brother laughs, “Well the Rainbow River of Rainbowness”

“Okay here we go,” I exclaim.

I get out of the car and feel the afternoon sun on my face I look up and smile. I look down at the splash of beautiful colors moving in waves before me. The water sparkles and glimmers like the stars. I dip my finger into the water and cry out with delight, “This is AMAZING!”

My brother smiles and says, “I know.”

Then we get to business since we don't have much time to waste. My brother orders for me to jump into the water and I do. The width of the river is about 5 miles so it's going to be a long swim. I start swimming, slowly at first then faster and faster. My brother keeps calling for me to slow down, but I can't, I won't, I need to get across this river. I have 2 yards left when I hear my brother gasping. I look back to see him sinking. I swim all the way back to him and we zoom back to shore. My brother and I walk as far as we can until we get to the Death Wall of Death.

CHAPTER 6

I look up in amazement at the Death Wall of Death. It has prickly vines and the wall itself is rough. I try climbing it but I can't get a good grip. So my brother tries to climb it too, but he can't get a grip either. I try to climb it again but I this time I poke my finger. Finally I step on my brother's hand and he boosts me up. I pull Jake up with me and then we climb down. Then we start walking towards the castle that awaits us. There I will catch that villain and I will be a good spy. I'm thinking about all of this when I step and the ground gives away from beneath me. I grip the road that's now above me and look down.

"Hazel!"

"Jake!"

I look down again and scream.

"Jake HELP!!!!!!!"

I use all of my strength not to let go. I use all of my might not to die. I can't DIE.
