

Vijayashree
Srikanth
By Anubha

Volcano Island

By Amber

Chapter 2 The Secret! {End of}

“I cannot believe that our own parents did not tell us about the Island of Volcanos,” whined Ross.

“Well believe it because they lied!” remarked Mitchie.

“I wonder what it looks like!” wondered Lizzie.

“Well let’s stop wondering and go find out,” yelled Dallas.

“I don’t know. Our parents would not like that” said Lizzie, the G.G. that she is. (Goody Goody).

“Common it will be a great adventure,” agreed Ross.

“Fine but we have to be home by 7 o’clock because that is when dinner is!” demanded Lizzie.

“Let’s go,” exclaimed Mitchie.

Chapter 3 Always Curious

“Do you think we could borrow your dad’s speed boat to get there Lizzie?” asked Dallas.

“I’m sure he wouldn’t mind if we did,” responded Lizzie.

They all climbed into the boat and started for Volcano Island. On the way everything did not go as planned. They started heading towards the Island. But then they realized they did not know where the island was. So then they went back to get a map. Then Lizzie suggested “Let’s bring a survival pack in case we get lost.”

” “But that’ll take forever!” Mitche whined.

Lizzie snapped back and said “Well I’m not going without it.”

They argued for a half an hour and then Mitchie gave in. They put a survival pack together and started for the Volcano Island (again). They tied up the boat to a large rock. The island did not have many trees. The island was like a giant sunset. The skies were red and orange. Some of the volcanos were so big that you had to look to the sky, and others were only a few inches taller than 5 feet. It was amazing. (But soon the four friends would soon realize why their parents had not told them about Volcano Island.)

Chapter 4 Too much sun!

“Wow it is hot on this island!” said Ross

“Ya!” agreed Dallas.

“Let’s look around,” suggested Mitchie.

The four friends started toward the biggest volcano. On the way there they found a small cave. At first they thought no big deal and then they heard a sound coming from the cave. They went to see what it was. The sound was actually a timer! It did not make sense, but then Ross realized that there was something on the wall. “Guys I think these are timers to when the volcanos will explode!” yelled Ross.

“What makes you say that?” asked Lizzie.

“Well it says in capital letters VOLCANO TIMERS on the wall,” responded Ross.

“One of these timers says 15 minutes!” said Dallas nervously.

“It also says Biggest V,” added Lizzie.

“We need to get out of here!” screamed Mitchie.

Chapter 5 Which Way?

They all ran out of the cave. But everything looked different. They were lost! “At least we have the survival pack,” mentioned Lizzie.

“Uhhh no we don’t,” said Mitchie “You know how you would not let me help put the survival pack together.”

“Ya,” everybody said together.

“Well I was wondering what was in the bag so I took everything out of the bag so I could look at it and I forgot to put it all back in the bag so Dallas only has the empty bag”

“Wjfjufhjfuajfhufufjhdsdfkjiu!” everybody started talking at once.

“BE QUIET” Lizzie yelled “Let’s just get out of here!” Lizzie added.

They started heading in a random direction, when all of a sudden, Mitchies foot got stuck in a hole. They pulled and pulled but her foot was really stuck!

“Are we ever going to get out of here?” Ross said sadly.....