PRINCESS GONE MAD!

By Sada

(A tale about 2 very mad princesses)

Chapter 1

It was a beautiful day on The Giant Eye. The flowers were blooming and every place sparkled. My sister Royal Beth and I were enjoying the day when, “Daughters,” my father’s voice boomed, “It is time for your royal bath.”

My sister and I rolled our eyes and went inside. Oh, how rude of me. I forgot to introduce myself. My name is Sada Beth, Princess Sada Beth. I hope you noticed but my sister and I are twins. We live on the planet The Giant Eye. It’s a humongous planet with a giant eye smacked right on the middle of the planet. Once you look at it for a while, it gets super, super creepy. As you should know if you are a human reading this awesome, heartwarming, lovely story, you should know that you should not even step on this planet or you will become person stew made by the most famous chef, Chef Lafe.

My sister and I are a type of alien called scalliens. We have blue scales, but if you kind of zoom out they look green. We have a kind of limp as we walk. We have a round body, and we walk on our three legs. Our facial description is that we have curly brownish black hair. We have nine eyes and three noses. We have a dark brown nose like a snongeldorf pup.

As I was saying, we walked inside, put on our bath robes, walked into the bathroom, took off our robes, and hopped into the bathtub. Ahh, my favorite, worm pie scented soap. We stayed in there for about an hour or so, hopped out, put on a bathing suit and ran to the pool. I did my favorite, the triple flip. My sister did her favorite the jump off the diving board and splat on the water. When we finished horsing around in the pool, we got out, dried ourselves off, and went back outside.

We sprinted outside, knocking every person we passed down. It was so fun. We sat down, out of breath, as we breathed hard, very hard.

“Sister,” I said out of breath, “Have you ever thought of going to a different planet.”

She stared at me crazily. “Are you bonkers?!” she screamed. “I have never heard of such a thing.”

“Ok,” I said glumly, and slowly, ever so slowly, I walked to the store. I bought a bag of frog lip chips and some grape snake juice for the both of us and sprinted back to where my sister was.

“I just got the coolest plan.” I whispered my plan to her. She sighed then agreed.

We sneaked past our dad, jogged to the rocket, and pressed the button “To Earth”. We flew into the air with a big BOOOOOOOM!!!!!! As we soared into space.

“WOW OH WOW!” I screamed at the top of my lungs, “This is so, so, so, amazing!”

Earth truly was amazing until, a little girl screamed, booming my eardrum. After everybody heard her, they scurried away.

“Wait” I said, but it was too late.

“I told you sis, you’ll never, ever, EVER succeed.”

I look at her, sadly, in despair. She never believes in me. NEVER, EVER, EVER!!!

“Why don’t you ever believe in me sis?” I question with dignity, trying not to burst out with tears.

“Because, I already know you’re going to fail, ha, ha, ha.”

I jump on her, tackle her to the ground, and we start rolling and SPLASH!!!! We collapse into the ocean water as we sink to the bottom. Our lungs are collapsing, we can’t even breath. As we sink to the bottom, I grab my sister, swim as fast as I can to the shore, and take a huge breath as we reach the shore.

“Are you bonkers you ding dong?!?!” my sister screams, “We could have been killed and da...” she pauses for a moment and says, “Dad, h-h-he’s going to kill us!!”

“No da sis, he already knows by now that the rocket is missing then he’ll realize we are missing, and mix us with the rocket and that is just big, big trouble.” I say.

CHAPTER 2

“Why did you have to get us in this big fat mess then?” My sister wondered.

“Because I wanted to prove to you that I am not a big loser like you think I am because, I’m tired of you treating me like one.” I say proudly.

“I’m sorry I treat you like this sis, I only act like that because that’s how most girls act.” She says as she looks at me.

“I understand sis.” I answer. “I know what he feels like.”

“How!?!?” she says as she starts to sob.

“I did it to my friend, I know what it feels like sis,” I protest, “It really, really hurts to know that you treat someone crabby and rude.”

We look at each other, feeling each other’s pain. Our cheeks touch as we can feel the coldness of our tears. Our cheeks are about to freeze to each other’s with the cold tears. You could hear us start to cry and sob. It hurts and I can feel my chest pushing me up and down. Tears roll down me and my sister’s alien body. We hug showing our emotions, as tears roll down our alien cheeks. I adore my sister and I definitely know that she really loves me. I hope we could go home before soon because if we don’t, sadly, you will never hear from us again because our dad will kill us.

“Well I guess we need to fix up this rocket fast, very fast, and we also need to rush home.” I stated.

“No I want to stay here sis.” My sister protests.

“Ok.” I answer knowing I wanted to stay too.

So after that, we changed our mind and stayed there knowing we would have an amazing life. Little did we know that something bad was about to happen. They saw their dad’s ship crashing into the ocean.
