The Continent of Dragons

By Parker E.

Chapter1

As a small monom flew into a cave a dark voice growled: "Have they accepted my request?"

The small monom shook his head. "Ug" the voice growled "looks like we have to go alone.

Soon another monom arrived saying "Blacksun! Gold master has sent out his dragons!"

Blacksun growled "they can't get us as long as we're in the forest"

"But he's planning to come here himself" the monom said.

"What! He hasn't come off his throne for two hundred years!" Blacksun bellowed.

"He's not, he's having a dragon turn it into a hover throne" the monom said.

When the earth started to shake the monoms knew to stand back. As the cave exploded a dragon that was 20 feet tall, black, giant winged, six eyed came out and once he came out the monoms got a good look at him he had a long spiked tail that was connected to a huge bulking body with a head that had a mouth like a crocodile that could snap up a human in one gulp and eyes that were so red that you would think they'd be on fire. His legs were super bulky, and his arms were long with huge claws on both hands. Blacksun growled, "Come on Scouter, we have to visit an old friend"

Now I know what you're thinking "What does a monom look like" well they look like small blue balls with smaller balls above, below, and to the sides [the ones on the sides are their hands].

As Scouter packed his [tiny] bag, Blacksun was deciding their route to the skull palace he decided on this: we'll travel though the spider forest go to Gulm for the night, travel across the bridge of Splenf, through the Spike mountains, near the Human army camp, across the bridge of Bal, through the Desert of Doom, and into the Skull Palace.

"That's the second quickest way to the Skull Palace" Blacksun growled. "The quickest way is far too dangerous"

When they left into the Spider forest [home of the spider king] they noticed that all the spiders were gone "their probably at one of their meetings" Blacksun stated.

When they got out of the forest they were momentarily blinded. Their eyes were used to the darkness of the forest.

It will be dark soon" Blacksun growled noticing the sun was in the west. "We'll need to go quickly if we want to get to Gulm while it's still day"

The travel went quickly since they were on flatlands and they quickly made it to Gulm. Gulm was a peaceful little human town that was mostly stone and wood shacks and two large stone buildings one of the two had a sign that read: Town Hall. Most of the humans had never seen a dragon or monom before so when Blacksun and Scouter entered the village they were immediately swarmed by villagers the children played with Scouter while people made a pathway to town square for Blacksun.

“Where’s the inn” Blacksun said in the nicest voice he could make. All the villagers pointed at the largest building in the village. It could fit a dragon in it but they would have to crawl. “This inn needs to be bigger” Mumbled Blacksun hitting his head on the high hanging chandelier.

“My name’s Boj and Sorry about the roof, it’s just we thought that we would never see a dragon” said Boj. Once Blacksun got a good look at Boj he noticed that he had a small mustache that was just as black as his small afro and a small smile broke across Boj’s sun browned face.

“We have one dragon sized room, it’s so big it had to be in the back of the inn if you would follow me I could bring you to it” Boj said.

“Ok we’ll take it for the night, how much is the rent?” Blacksun growled.

“For you it’s free” Boj said.

As Blacksun and Scouter left for the shop Boj told them where it was, when Blacksun found the door was too small he quickly made a list of supplies for Scouter to get: 1 Map

1 compass

Food [marshmallows for you roast deer for me]
whatever you want [don’t spend too much money on stuff we don’t need]

Scouter took the list and nodded in agreement when Scouter walked in the store, the owner asked “Can I help you?” scouter showed him the list and pointed to a monom sized sleeping bag. “Ok I have all the stuff you need just give me a second to get them for you and your dragon friend” said the store owner as he walked into the storeroom.

While the store manager was in the storerooms scouter decided to look around the store. It was crowded with supplies of all sorts, food, maps, tents, and sleeping bags.

When the store owner didn't come back Scouter decided to go look for him. Instead of going through the door he decided to go through a hole in the wall in case there was a trap. The storerooms were huge and Scouter thought how am I ever going to find him? When scouter found the man he was asleep lying on the floor. When Scouter woke him up he said "The stuff you need is in a bag on the desk next to the floor take it and run" as the puzzled monom ran a green armored gas dragon burst into the hall the monom was in and started to breath knockout gas that the store owner accidently breathed some and was asleep in a moment. Quickly Scouter grabbed the pack while running and burst through the door. "What's wrong?!" asked the startled Blacksun

Right after Blacksun asked the question the green dragon burst through the door. Blacksun gave the much smaller 10 foot tall dragon a single glare and the green dragon ran away in fear of the towering nightmare dragon.

"What happened!?" Blacksun bellowed. Since scouter couldn't speak he wrote what had happened in the shop

"Looks like I need a new ride to Skull palace and what am I supposed to tell Goldmaster, that Greenback was outran by a monom?" Said one of Goldmaster's gargoyle servants.

"Let's go back to the inn" Blacksun growled.

As they were going back to their room Blacksun hit his head on the chandelier again and started mumbling unintelligible words.

“Let’s go to sleep” Scouter wrote on some paper

“Agreed” mumbled Blacksun

“This sea snake should do it” whispered Goldmaster’s servant putting a sea snake under one of the pillows in the dragon sized room “I Midgy will kill Blacksun!”

When Scouter and Blacksun got into the room they immediately dropped onto their beds and Scouter thought he heard hissing in his pillow but he was too busy punching his pillow to make it softer but on the last punch a sea snake shot out of his pillow. Quickly Blacksun grabbed the snake with the tip of his claw and blew a tiny black flame on it. “You want some roast snake?” Blacksun asked

When they were asleep Midgy checked to see if the snake had done its job. “Ug” Midgy whispered checking their pulses “Looks like plan B get its turn.”

Cutting a rope that held an oil lamp Midgy said “If this doesn’t work I’m going to be out of plans.”
